

FUNCTION
v e n u e s

UCT Law @ work

SAMLA: FOUNDATIONS OF MEDICO-LEGAL PRACTICE 2018

PROVISIONAL LECTURE TIMETABLE

SESSION 1: 27 January 2018
SUBJECT	LECTURE TITLE	LECTURER	TIME
SUBJECT 1: South African law applicable to personal injury litigation	A. Introduction to medico-legal practice Introduction to the foundations of medico-legal practice in personal injury litigation	Judge Neels Claassen	2.5 hours
	The interaction between medical law and ethics	Prof Pieter Carstens
	B. The personal injury claim Civil litigation (for lawyers and experts)	Dr Henry Lerm	2.5 hours
	The cause of action (contract/delict/assault)	Dr Henry Lerm
	What is the plaintiff entitled to claim?	Dr Henry Lerm
	The RAF claim (introduction)	Prof Hennie Klopper
	Medical negligence claims (introduction)	Dr Henry Lerm

	C. Grounds of justification when treating a patient		2.5 hours
	Consent to medical treatment	Adv. John Mullins SC
	When consent to medical treatment is not required: emergency, statutory authority, court order and others	Adv. Carlos da Silva SC
	Causation in medical negligence	Adv. John Mullins SC

SESSION 2: 10 February 2018
SUBJECT	LECTURE TITLE	LECTURER	TIME
SUBJECT 1: South African law applicable to personal injury litigation	D. Medical negligence litigation		2.5 hours
	Grounds of medical negligence and proof thereof	Adv. Carlos da Silva SC
	Specific cases in medical negligence litigation	Dr Henry Lerm
	E. RAF claims		2.5 hours
Understanding the RAF Amendment Act and Regulations Limitation of compensation for patrimonial and non-patrimonial damages Problems in practice The future	Prof Hennie Klopper
	F. Work Place Law		2.5 hours
	The common law cause of action A claim under the Statutory Provisions	Adv. Russel Beaton SC

	Prosecuting and quantifying a claim before the Workmen's Compensation Commissioner The role of the expert witness
--	--	--	--

SESSION 3: 24 February 2018
SUBJECT	LECTURE TITLE	LECTURER	TIME
SUBJECT 1: South African law applicable to personal injury litigation	G. General introduction to the law of evidence General introduction to the law of evidence	Adv. Carlos da Silva SC	2.5 hours
	Specific medical cases relating to evidence	Adv. John Mullins SC
	H. Proving your claim Obtaining health records and other evidence	Adv./Prof Patrick Van Den	2.5 hours
	The expert witness	Adv. John Mullins SC
	I. Mediation of medical disputes Benefits and track record of mediation; pre-mediation meeting; role players in medico-legal mediation	Adv. Alan Nelson SC	2.5 hours

SESSION 4: 10 March 2018

SUBJECT	LECTURE TITLE	LECTURER	TIME
SUBJECT 2: Ethical conduct in medico-legal practice	A. Foundations of morality and ethics	Dr Willem Moore	2.5 hours
	B. Legal ethics	Dr Henry Lerm	2.5 hours
	C. Ethical rules / guidelines for the medical practitioner (HPCSA Ethical Guidelines)	Dr Malcolm De Roubaix	2.5 hours

SESSION 5: 17 March 2018

SUBJECT	LECTURE TITLE	LECTURER	TIME
SUBJECT 2: Ethical conduct in medico-legal practice	D. Ethical conduct in medico-legal practice concerning the medico-legal practitioner, or medico-legal ethics Ethical fees for medico-legal services (Ethical issues that confront the medico-legal practitioner that are not provided for in standard medical or legal ethical rules or guidelines)	Dr & Adv. Anton van den Bout	2.5 hours
SUBJECT 3: Psychology and communication in medico-legal practice	A. Ego states and their behavioural manifestation Understanding and managing Self	Dr Hanneltjie Edeling	2.5 hours
	B. The psyche of the human being Dealing with the Other	Ms Mignon Coetzee	2.5 hours

SESSION 6: 14 April 2018

SUBJECT	LECTURE TITLE	LECTURER	TIME
SUBJECT 3: Psychology and communication in medico-legal practice	C. General communication skills Communicating clearly	Dr Berna Gerber	2.5 hours
	D. Special communication skills Dealing with diversity and special circumstances	Prof Mark Tschaepe	2.5 hours
SUBJECT 4: Logical reasoning	A. Logical and illogical reasoning by experts, advocates and judges	Dr David Klatzow	2.5 hours

SESSION 7: 21 April 2018

SUBJECT	LECTURE TITLE	LECTURER	TIME
SUBJECT 4: Logical reasoning	B. Introduction to logical reasoning – Part 1	Adv. Jimmy Kyriacou	2.5 hours
	C. Introduction to logical reasoning – Part 2	Adv. Jimmy Kyriacou	2.5 hours
	D. Logical and illogical reasoning by experts, advocates and judges	Adv. John Mullins SC	2.5 hours

SESSION 8: 5 May 2018

SUBJECT	LECTURE TITLE	LECTURER	TIME
SUBJECT 5: Medical science applicable to medico-legal practice	A. Orthopaedics: a study of the musculoskeletal system and injuries Anatomy/physiology: complications and outcome of musculoskeletal injuries of the limbs	Prof Charles Lautenbach	2.5 hours
	B. Neurosurgery/neurology – essential anatomy/physiology of the brain; outcome of brain injuries (with references to logical reasoning; the scientific method in medicine; impairment of abstract but crucial functions)	Dr Herman Edeling	2.5 hours
	C. Obstetrics/gynaecology: complications; birth trauma	Dr Peter Koll	2.5 hours

SESSION 9: 19 May 2018

SUBJECT	LECTURE TITLE	LECTURER	TIME
SUBJECT 5: Medical science applicable to medico-legal practice	D. Internal medicine; outcome of chest/abdominal injuries; life expectancy; influence of chronic disease, e.g. HIV, diabetes, etc.	Dr Andre Botha	2.5 hours
	E. Symposium on Pain Towards a better understanding of chronic pain (Inappropriate pain behaviour; real pain; acute and chronic musculoskeletal pain; failed back surgery syndrome; neuropathic pain; anatomical and non-anatomical pain distribution; referred pain; phantom pain; treatment of chronic pain; prognosis of chronic pain)	Main Speaker Dr Russell Raath Panel Dr Hans Enslin Mr Trevor Reynolds Ms Elzeth Jacobs	2.5 hours

	F. Impairment/disability – discussion of the medico-legal importance of human impairment and disability. Discussion regarding the narrative test and deficiencies found in the 6th edition of the AMA Guides	Dr Hans Enslin	2.5 hours
--	--	----------------	------------------

SESSION 10: 2 June 2018

SUBJECT	LECTURE TITLE	LECTURER	TIME
SUBJECT 6: Other sciences applicable to medico-legal practice	A. Assessment of physical functional status after a personal injury: a physiotherapy perspective	Ms Pip Jackson	2.5 hours
	B. The application of functional capacity evaluation results on all spheres of life The effect of physical limitations on earning capacity	Ms Elzeth Jacobs	2.5 hours
	C. Myths and misconceptions about clinical psychology's contribution to settling personal injury claims (psychological trauma; psychological sequelae of physical injuries)	Mr Trevor Reynolds	2.5 hours

SESSION 11: 9 June 2018

SUBJECT	LECTURE TITLE	LECTURER	TIME
SUBJECT 6: Other sciences applicable to medico-legal practice	D. From consulting room to courtroom: the role of the neuropsychologist in the quantification of personal injury matters involving brain damage	Mr Brian Mallinson	2.5 hours
	E. The role of the educational psychologist, including aspects of paediatric neuropsychology, in medico-legal practice	Ms Eleanor Bubb	2.5 hours

	The devil is in the detail - speech, language and communication considerations in TBI	Dr Odette Guy
	F. Challenges regarding assessment of loss of earning capacity for the industrial psychologist A template of facts and opinions to be provided by other disciplines to assist the industrial psychologist	Dr Rita Kellerman	2.5 hours
	The calculation of capitalised losses in personal injury claims	Mr Alexander Munro	