

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE: PRACTICAL INSIGHTS

20 hours remote lecturing

Held over 5 days

THE COURSE AT A GLANCE

Corporate governance procedures help a business become more efficient while reducing both risk and the potential for corruption and mismanagement.

If you are not trained in law, you may be surprised by the number of rules, regulations and laws you may break while operating a business, without even knowing it! A good corporate governance programme can boost your reputation, ensure discharge of fiduciary duties of directors, and limit the potential of poor strategy, unforeseen risks, and conflicts of interest. Companies following a set of good corporate governance principles and best practices will tend to act in the best interest of the business and stakeholders, building trust, as well as enjoying greater sustainable value creation. This course will cover the principles and best practices of corporate governance and responsibilities of directors using relevant case studies.
